

HARD TIME RECRUITING BUS DRIVERS?

CMVTC MOBILE VIDEO TECHNOLOGIES WILL HELP YOU ATTRACT/RETAIN SCHOOL BUS DRIVERS

Key reasons why School Bus Drivers Quit

Bus Drivers often feel like they lack support in their workplace. This is one of the major reasons why there is a shortage of bus drivers in the recent school years. Whether they don't feel the school are backing them up when parents complain due to a dispute, or a conflict during the bus ride. Disciplinary actions they need to implement for students distracting them from safely driving the school bus or too many hoops for drivers to jump through to discipline children for unsafe on-bus behavior, are just a few reasons why school bus drivers are reluctant to apply for the position.

Protect Your Driver Over Disputes With Parents

One of the worst situations for a bus drivers is being stuck in a he-said/she-said argument with a student and their parents. Many parents simply won't want to accept that their child has been misbehaving on the bus, and it can be difficult for bus drivers to win that argument. However, with video and audio on their side, it's a different story. Video can prove which students were misbehaving, and which weren't...See more

Encourage Better Rider Behavior

When students know there is cameras on the bus, this discourages unacceptable behaviors, thus making the bus drivers job a lot easier. Plus CMVTC offers a live 4G/LTE Router which can help the drivers minimize your drivers required actions. If a conflict occurs while on the bus, the driver just has to press a blue button which notifies the administration department. The administrator can then discipline the kids on real time by calling them out through the buses speakers. This way the driver can focus on the road and the kids ride the bus safely...See more
